Democrat Professors' association, Nepal (2063, B.S/ 2006) is one of the active organizations working in the field of welfare, security, and rights of Nepalese professors of all universities. The main objectives of the association are to establish the democratic norms, pluralism and promote sustainable development and overall peace across the country. It always focuses on the quality of higher education through research activities as well as development of academic skills of all members of the association.

DEPAN: A Peer Reviewed Journal of Multidisciplinary Research has incorporated articles from distinguished academicians of different walks of life from various academic institutions. It has adopted a multidisciplinary approach such as management, accounting, finance, economics, statistics literature, linguistics, environment, humanities and social sciences, etc. It is a common platform for all members who are involved in teaching-learning process and research activities. It may be fruitful for our researchers/ thinkers who are interested in doing something new for the nation.

Finally, we would like to express our gratitude to all authors for their submission within the limited period. Similarly, we would like to thank all the distinguished personalities for their invaluable support and the contributors for their crucial thoughts and ideas to make this journal a successful one.
