

EDITORIAL

It is our great pleasure to announce the volume 5 issue 2 of the Pragma Darshan as per our previous commitment of the online version of this journal through Nepjol.

Our challenge is now to strengthen the quality for which we now request to all the researchers to provide the quality manuscripts as per the format of the journal. This journal is multidisciplinary. So, the manuscripts from Science, Technology, Medicine, Agriculture, Engineering, Humanities, Social Sciences, Managements, etc. can be accepted. The manuscripts are double-blinded peer-reviewed.

Finally, we are grateful to all the contributors, reviewers, and producers for the accomplishment of this series.

This journal will be linked to the NepJol from this issue and provided with DOI for each article.

Thank you very much.
